DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-19, 28 and 29, drawn to a method for determining the presence of bacteria or fungus-yeast RNA in a sample.

Group II, claim(s) 20-27, drawn to a kit comprising a thermostable enzyme with reverse transcriptase and DNA polymerase activity, primers for reverse transcription and PCR, and one or more detection probes.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group I, drawn to claims 1-19, 28 and 29, included many claims which were found to be obvious over prior art, specifically, by Rokbi et al. (Infection and Immunity (2001) 69:4759-4766), which is shown to be an X reference which teaches a method for quantifying Helicobacter pylori gene expression using a real-time RT-PCR assay, in view of Lin (U.S. Patent Pub. No. 2002/0187488), which teaches a one-step real-time RT-PCR assay for detecting viral RNA using polynucleotide detection probes and Tth DNA polymerase, an enzyme with both reverse transcriptase and DNA polymerase activities (see paragraph 81, lines 1-19 and Table 1). As MPEP 1893.03(d) notes "The expression special technical features is defined as meaning those technical features that define the contribution which each claimed invention, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.” In the current case, the claims are drawn to a method in Group I, but that Group does not make a contribution over the prior art because the invention is anticipated by the prior art. Therefore, there is no single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 and the lack of unity requirement is proper.

In addition, should the applicant elect Group I, the applicant is required to select no more than one polynucleotide primer from each of Groups III and IV below and one polynucleotide probe from Group V below:

Group III, the individual SEQ ID Nos. 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9, representing sequences of a forward primer generic to claims 3-8, 16 and 24.

Group IV, the individual SEQ ID Nos. 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10, representing sequences of a reverse primer generic to claims 3-8, 15 and 23.

Group V, the individual SEQ ID Nos. 11-19, representing sequences of a reverse primer generic to claims 3-8, 17 and 25.

The inventions listed in Groups III-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCR Rule 13.1 because, under PCR Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Groups III and IV are drawn to primer sequences used for amplification while Group V is drawn to probe sequences used for detection of amplified products, with each primer or probe specific for a unique RNA sequence.

3. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims.

Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David C. Thomas whose telephone number is 571-272-3320 and whose fax number is 571-273-3320. The examiner can normally be reached on 5 days, 9-5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Gary Benzion can be reached on 571-272-0782. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
